Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chalmers, of Waiakea, have returned from a three months' visit to their old home at Aberdeen, Scotland, greatly improved in health and much pleased with their trip. They were accompanied on their return by J. Niccol, J. Mackie and G. Perry, the latter remaining in Honolulu.

Edward B. Giffard, a clerk in Spreckels Bank and a brother of W. M. Giffard, presumably in a fit of despondency, jumped overboard from the Sonoma on the night before the steamer's arrival at Honolulu. The body was not found although two hours were spent by the vessel in the search. He was unmarried.

SUIT FOR INCOME TAXES.

Word has been received that Judge Hardy of the Fifth Circuit Court of Kauai has summarily dismissed the mandamus case of the County of Hawaii against Tax Assessor Holt to compel the collection and payment of income taxes of certain Kauai corporations on Kauai and not in Honolulu, as is the present custom. It is claimed that the income tax should be collected in and for the district where it was earned. County Attorney John D. Willard of Kauai is much disappointed over the decision, which he claims does not discuss the vital point of the controversy but upon a mere technicality, transfers the consideration of the case to the Territorial Supreme Court.

Death of W. N. Armstrong.

W. N. Armstrong, one time Attorney General under King Kalakaua and who accompanied that monarch on his memorable trip around the world, died Sunday, October 15th at Washington, D. C. Mr. Armstrong was seventy years of age and led a life of activity in the history of Hawaii, having been a lawyer, politician, statesman, author and at one time editor of the Advertiser. He was a man of high ideals and strong friendships, whose confidence it was a privilege to enjoy. As one of the builders of the Territory, his loss will be missed.

Pleasing to the Eye.

Jas. D. Dougherty, traveling salesman of H. F. Wichman & Co., Honolulu, arrives in Hilo today and may be found at the Hotel Peacock. He carries with him an elaborate assortment of precious stones, jewelry and selected pieces in gold and silver, suitable for wedding, birthday and holiday gifts. He is authorized to deliver such pieces as he may dispose of on the trip, so that there will be no chance of duplication. He will probably remain until Friday in Hilo, and invites those interested to inspect his samples.

County Band in Puna.

Last Sunday's morning train carried the County Band to Pahoia, Puna, where it delighted the assembled Hawaiians, whites and Asiatics with an all day concert.

The band played on leaving Hilo and all along the route to hastily gathered crowds. Arrived at Pahoia Station, Prof. Carvalho and musicians were met by an enthusiastic crowd and escorted to the Pahoia Hotel which had been tastefully decorated in greens with the legend "Welcome Band Boys" worked out in ferns.

A bounteous and toothsome luau had been prepared under the supervision of County Supervisor Makuakane, Judge Kamau and John Kalanao, assisted by a large number of ladies. At 12 the boys were all seated at the luau while beautiful leis were put over their heads. Supervisor Makuakane offered grace and the boys went on to do justice to the luau spread before them.

At the leader's request G. F. Afonso, in the Band's name thanked all those who had been instrumental in preparing such a nice luau, which was replied to by Mr. Makuakane. Hawaii Pono was sung and the luau proper was over.

From 1 p. m. to 3:30 the band continued its concert. The evening train brought the band boys tired, but happy back to town.

Received an Ovation.

An honor seldom enjoyed by departing townsmen is to be serenaded by the county band as they leave the old haunts for new ones. This was the compliment paid to August Humburg last Friday morning at the Kinau wharf, when that gentleman departed for Honolulu to take up the duties of his new office in H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd. There was a large crowd present at the steamer and the band discoursed sweet melodies as the vessel with Humburg aboard swung out into the stream.

Mr. Humburg goes to Honolulu to assume a responsible position in the main office of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd. He has been manager of the local branch in Hilo for the past five years, and during the absence of Director J. F. Humburg, who has been selected as eastern buyer of the house, Mr. August Humburg will occupy the former's desk. C. Castendyk, assistant manager of the local store, will be promoted to the head of the establishment, and have for assistants A. W. Richardson and Frank Hime, lately of Kailua.

A Farewell Party.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Castendyk at their beautiful remodeled home "Illahoe" at Riverside Park entertained a score of friends on last Tuesday evening, in honor of A. Humburg whose departure on Friday for Honolulu, has been the occasion of many social affairs during the past ten days. Cards and dancing were indulged in, and later on delicate refreshments were served on the lanai and spacious dining room. Among those present besides the host and hostess were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Metcalfe, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Elliot, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. C. Campbell, Misses Mary Shipman, Clara Shipman, Lillian Hapai, Harriet Hapai, Louisa Hapai, Ruth Richardson, and Katherine Trowbridge. Messrs. A. W. Richardson, O. E. English, C. O. Smith, Judge Parsons, Dr. J. J. Grace, Dr. A. Irwin, Dr. C. L. Stow and George Hapai.

TO REMODEL CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Edifice to Be Altered Under Supervision of Father Wendelin.

An old landmark of Hilo will soon undergo an alteration which is only another evidence of the growth and advancement of the town. Father Wendelin of St. Joseph's Catholic Church has determined upon the enlargement and remodeling of that house of worship. The membership has increased to nearly double the number when the church was first erected in 1860.

The entire building is to be lowered to the level of the stone wall surrounding the church grounds, and the chamber extended ten feet on either side. The two towers will be removed to either side of the present building in line with the doorway of the auditorium, permitting of a double front entrance and vestibule and a more imposing facade. In place of the present rounded church towers, two modern pointed spires with dormer windows will be erected on either side of the church entrance. The roof will be extended over the addition to be added to either side of the present structure and iron roofing substituted for the present slate roof, which has been found too heavy and dangerous to pedestrians when loose.

The work of reconstruction will be under the immediate supervision of Father Wendelin, who is in charge of the Catholic Mission in Hilo. He has had much experience in designing and has an eye for the beautiful in architecture as well as its practicability. When assigned to duty at the leper settlement on Molokai in 1900, he drew the plans and personally supervised the construction of the St. Francis Church at Kalaupapa. This is regarded as one of the most ornate and chaste specimens of church architecture in the islands, being designed in the shape of a cross.

In the remodeling of St. Joseph Church, Father Wendelin will be ably assisted by brothers Silvanus and Sylvester from the Honolulu mission, who are practical carpenters and builders. The funds for the remodeling of the church were secured from private subscriptions and a part of the proceeds of the luau and fair given at the Hilo Armory a short time ago by the Catholic Ladies Aid Society.

The present church building was built July 9, 1860. It has long been one of the landmarks to sailing vessels and navigators at sea, and today is one of the fixed range sites marking the entrance of Hilo harbor. Ground was first broken on June 9, 1860, and few of the kamaainas now living recall the event. The ground was consecrated and the corner stone laid June 18, 1860, in a simple ceremony to which the assembled congregation and a few invited guests were present. Judge G. W. A. Hapai is the only name of a person now living who attended the exercises. The church was built by three Brothers, Zenon, Juste and Aquilec, under the supervision of Father Charles Pougot, lovingly known as Father Charley. The building was completed and solemnly dedicated on July 9, 1861, when the sacrament of baptism was administered to forty catechumens. From 250 to 300 persons were confirmed by Rt. Rev. Monseigneur Maigret, Bishop of Hawaii. Father Celestine of Kauai assisted and Fathers Edmond and Lenore of Maui with their pupils came to witness the ceremony. The dedicatory exercises were followed by a dinner in which Messrs. Spencer, Coney, Hitchcock and other prominent citizens took part. In the evening there was a luau and fire works, the occasion being one of celebration and rejoicing.

Bazaar Next Saturday Night.

The ladies of St. James Guild announce a bazaar and doll show to be held next Saturday afternoon and evening in the parlors of the Hilo Hotel. The affair is for the benefit of the church and ample amusement will be afforded for all. The program includes a Punch and Judy show, grab bag, candy and fancy work booths, doll exhibit and poi supper in the evening. Admission twenty-five cents and ten cents for children.

Kinau Departures, Oct. 20th.

While the Agents of many Life Insurance Companies are petitioning their Officers for the ANNUAL DIVIDEND policy, it is a source of great satisfaction to the Policyholders of the Pacific Mutual to know that their Company has been issuing almost nothing else for years.

No petitioning necessary for liberality with the good old Pacific Mutual.

The Directors of the Company are by the California law made jointly and severally liable for all monies EMBEZZLED or MISAPPROPRIATED by the officers during the term of office of such Director. Quite a provision from the SECURITY STANDPOINT, considering what has recently occurred.

The best policies are issued by the best Company on Earth for policyholders.
